Editor News:

In your issue of May 23d under the heading "Is This Socialism" you publish what is reported to be part of a speech by Wm. D. Haywood and challenge the local Socialists to repudiate or defend it and offer the columns of the News "to some extent" for that purpose. The fact that it is the persistent policy of the News to studiously refrain from mentioning even the smallest of the many virtues, which so many truly great minds have seen and recognized in the demands of Socialism, while it as persistently grasps at the smallest thing and even publishes what it admits may not be true and clothes it in questionable sarcasm, apparently to prejudice the public mind, makes us feel that the News is not so ignorant on the subject of Socialism as it is intentionally unfair. Hence the question, if we accept the challenge and attempt to defend Socialism against your unfair attack will you not use your arbitrary power as the owner of the News columns and publish only so much of our reply as you may wish the readers of the News to see? As in fact is suggested by your own words "to some extent."

Now, Mr. Editor, I am ready and anxious to accept your challenge on a fair basis where neither will have the arbitrary advantage of the other. I will meet you, or any one you may choose in a public meeting and discuss the substance of the article above mentioned. You have seen fit to make your challenge public and if it is made in good faith please have the fairness to publish the above and announce its acceptance to your readers and we will mutually arrange the time and place.

Respectfully yours,

J. C. BELDIN.

[In reference to the above we do not entirely believe in good resulting from public debates upon subjects such as religion and Socialism; for the reason that the believers in the one or the other feel so strongly in regard to the subject, that shafts of pure reason glance harmlessly from the armor of their self-sufficiency. Further than this, the advantage as far as the average audience is concerned is usually with the most fluent speaker regardless of any ideas expressed or reason given. Mr. Beldin is unfair in assuming that we would not publish in its entirety any proper communication of reasonable length. The question we asked in our last issue can be answered briefly and does not require debate. However, as to that, we shall try to accommodate Mr. Beldin some time in the near future.

On motion the president was instructed to appoint five citizens to act with the board of trustees, the city engineer and the city attorney as delegates, should the proposed convention be held. ## COUNTRY CLUB NOTES.

The new members have formed a dancing class and meet every Wednesday evening to perfect themselves in the art.

L. A. Monroe is the latest name to be added to the list of members. It is announced that Mr. L. C. Brand will invite the club members to an evening's entertainment at his residence on June 13th.

Friday evening next there will be a card party at the club rooms. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bullis are the committee having the affair in charge, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kirkby, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. D. Griswold, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stine, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McIntyre and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Wilkinson. Light refreshments will be served and small prizes given.

OPEN UP SIXTH STREET.

At the meeting of the city trustees preceding the last, the city engineer was instructed to endeavor to secure the transfer by private owners of property along this thoroughfare for road purposes. The conditions along this street are very much mixed. Beginning at the easterly city limits there is a sixty-foot roadway dedicated to the county, extending westward to Verdugo road. From that point westward to the northwest corner of the Ward property there is no public road at all as far as any official record is concerned, although a thirty-foot roadway has been traveled over for many years. From that point westward to Cedar street the street is sixty feet wide; then from there to Glendale avenue only a thirty-foot road exists, this having been deeded by the Orange Grove tract along that property. West from Glendale avenue it is an eighty-foot street to the westerly city limits. Naturally this should be one of the main thoroughfares across our city connecting East and West sides. It is the route most likely to be selected by the highway commission in putting their boulevard through our city from Redlands to the sea. The point made in the communication which we published last week addressed to the city council by Attorney E. S. Janes for a proposed railway company, showing how it would be impossible after this thoroughfare has been established as a boulevard to allow the passage of any railway over the same, is one worthy of consideration. The sooner a definite policy is agreed upon in regard to our streets the better it will be, and the simpler will be the working out of the plans for our city's betterment.

RECEPTION AT HOMEWOOD HOTEL.

The old Lanterman place in La Canyada was the scene on Friday of last week of a very successful social entertainment given by Mrs. Etta Perry, who now occupies that property and dispenses the hospitality of "Homewood Hotel" as the resort is now called. A number of Mrs. Perry's friends from Glendale were present during portions of the afternoon and evening and a great number of visitors from Pasadena, Los Angeles and many neighbors nearby were also in attendance. The splendid decoration of the fine old-fashioned home was well worth going some distance to see. This had been attended by Mr. Gilhousen, a local decorator, and the work proved him an artist in that line. Roses were used in great profusion and with wonderfully successful effect. The refreshments were all that might be expected from such a successful caterer as Mrs. Perry's friends in Glendale know her to be. We are glad to know that the Homewood Hotel is acquiring a reputation as a delightful, popular resort.

TWO CLASSES OF UNDESIRABLE CITIZENS.

President Roosevelt finds two kinds of undesirable citizens. One he characterizes, very properly, as "the man who preaches hatred of wealth honestly acquired, who inculcates envy and jealousy and slanderous ill will toward those of his fellows who by thrift, energy and industry have become men of means."

The other against which the president is directing the forces of the nation he describes as "that particular kind of multimillionaire who is almost the least enviable, and is certainly one of the least admirable, of all our citizens,—a man of whom it has been well said that his face has grown hard and cruel, while his body has grown soft; whose son is a fool and his daughter a foreign princess; whose nominal pleasures are at the best those of a tasteless and extravagant luxury; and whose real delight, whose real life-work is the accumulation and use of power in its most sordid and least elevating form. In the chaos of an absolute, unrestricted commercial individualism under modern conditions this is a type that becomes prominent as inevitably as the marauder baron became prominent in the physical chaos of the Dark Ages."

WHAT IS CALIFORNIA LAND WORTH?

Again we ask this question, and quote another instance to show that some of it at least has an intrinsic productive value that can scarcely be overestimated. There is an orchard of lemon trees in the corporate limits of Glendale containing 308 trees, covering three acres of land, that has brought the owner within the last five months the sum of $1061.50; and the price was only the average year-round figure paid at the packing house. It is probable that the year's output of this little orchard will not fall short of $2000. Last year it was about $1700. To avoid the responsibility of encouraging tenderfeet to plant lemon trees, however, we are impelled to add that there are other orchards, both of lemon and orange trees, in our neighborhood, which the owners claim do not pay. We have more than a suspicion that not the land nor the location, but the man is somewhat responsible for the results in either case. We have noticed a disinclination on the part of some orchardists to do anything more for their trees than was absolutely necessary to keep them alive, and a tendency to blame nature for unsatisfactory results.

NEW RESERVOIR.

A portion of the Allen Place on the south side of First street, west of Verdugo road, has, we understand, been bought for the purpose of building thereon a reservoir for the purpose of supplying water to the Valley View Tract, on Central avenue. That tract is supplied by Mr. H. Glassel with Verdugo canon water.

GLENDALE, CAL., MAY 30, 1908

For one thing which congress has not done, we are duly thankful. It has not passed any legislation restricting the power of the Federal courts in respect to injunctions, and will not do so. It now remains for Mr. Samuel Gompers to "demand" something more.

Panama and Colombia were making faces at each other and threatening to be real bad. Taft the peacemaker packed his gripsack and stepped down there the other day without any particular notice from brass bands or the "capitalistic press." Now he has returned and all is quiet in mosquito-land. The only doubt we have of the results of making this door of great things in a quiet way president, is the haunting fear that he will find no one big enough to fill his large shoes as a pacifier of the world at large.

When Taft and Bryan are nominated by their respective parties for the presidency, we shall have a clear-cut contest between the Man who Does and the Man who Talks and the election returns will indicate quite correctly which comes the nearer to being the ideal of the Man who Votes.

Triumphs of Science

It there remains anyone so ignorant or so bigoted as to doubt the truth of the germ theory as explaining the cause of disease, or some diseases, at least, he will have difficulty in accounting for the fact that while the railroad was being built across the Isthmus of Panama, every cross-tie was said to be the tomb of an employee. Now under American control and sanitary management the death rate is less than that which prevails in the city of New York, and the city of New York, thanks to the scientific application of this great discovery, is one of the healthiest cities in the world.

It is claimed that the death rate from consumption, or tuberculosis, has decreased twenty-five per cent., while diphtheria, typhoid and other contagious diseases are no longer feared as epidemics.

A Defect in the Law

A bond election was held in this school district last Saturday to determine whether a bonded indebtedness of $15,000 running fifteen years should be levied upon all the real property in the district.

There are something like four hundred voters in the district and only twenty-seven of them turned out to vote—the result being that on the expressed wish of twenty seven people the Glendale school district is taxed for fifteen years to come in the sum of $15,000 and an annual payment of interest aggregating for that term over $6,000.

Our object in calling attention to this matter is not to say that we should not be so taxed; we should have urged the consideration of our point had the result been the contrary; but we wish to call attention to the defect in our laws which permits a handful of citizens for any object however high and holy to place such a tax upon their fellow citizens. The fault for results lies, of course, with the citizens who do not perform their political duties; but at the same time the law should fix a minimum vote as the requisite for effectiveness. In this case twenty-seven men voted on the question. It was a waste of material; three votes would have served the purpose equally well as the law stands, or two, had they been unanimous.

Concerning Amusements

For a quiet town, Glendale certainly does not lack for evening entertainments, which in number and quality might well satisfy a larger place. Scarcely a week passes without one or two public entertainments, musical and otherwise. And their quality is all that can reasonably be demanded.

We have an abundance of talented local performers to whom it is always a pleasure to listen, and the price of admission is so low that the public may usually be assured in advance that full money consideration will be received. And we bring from Los Angeles performers of high standing, lest we should possibly tire of those, in many cases equally good, whom we have at home.

But the question has suggested itself more than once, is it not time that we should have something different occasionally; something that will yield not only entertainment, but profitable instruction as well?

As we listened for an hour and a half recently to a lecture by that talented and most interesting talker, Mr. B. R. Baumgardt, in Los Angeles, we could not keep down the question that suggested itself, why should we not, occasionally at least, in Glendale, enjoy such a mental treat as lectures of this character afford?

Pastime is excellent and essential, but why should it not more frequently be mixed with instruction? It does not matter how well informed one may happen to be, he cannot listen to any one of Mr. Baumgardt's lectures without coming away from it with some knowledge added to his accumulated store and some pleasant picture joined to those in the gallery of his memory, to cheer him and uplift!

We suggest to our churches and societies which contemplate the giving of entertainments in the near future, that they communicate with Mr. Baumgardt in Los Angeles and give the Glendale public an opportunity of hearing a most interesting discourse, illustrated by pictures which add to the pleasant impression that the speaker conveys.

in conjunction with the governor and prepare a plan which would bring about the desired improvement upon present methods.

This committee made some progress and at the last session of the legislature "Senate Constitutional Amendment, No. 1," was adopted and is to be submitted to the voters for approval next November.

This is probably the most important constitutional amendment which the voters have been called to pass upon in this state for many years, and its provisions and probable effects should be made known very generally before election day.

The principal defect in our present system is that nearly all our taxes are collected from real estate, other forms of property bearing but a very small proportion of the burden. The last two legislatures did put a special tax on corporations (of which there are some forty thousand in the state) and we now raise considerable revenue from that source; but it was more or less a makeshift to answer temporary purposes. An effort was made to put a special tax on the liquor interests, but it was found difficult to do this on account of the provision in the state constitution which prohibits double taxation; so that the special tax on corporations has been the only addition made to the system we are laboring under for many years past.

A very serious defect in our present system is the general plan of taxation for all purposes which prevails. One general assessment is made for state and county and the matter of equalization is always a serious problem. Should the proposed amendment be adopted this would be remedied, as it provides various sources of revenue for different purposes. Certain classes of property will be taxed for state purposes only; other classes to be set aside to provide local revenue. The farmer in particular should hail the proposed change with satisfaction, as it will relieve him very materially of the burden of taxation that he bears at present.

It is claimed that under the system proposed cities and counties will be enabled to tax property at its full value and have a proportionally low tax rate. It would not do to do this at present, unless it was done in every county, as the result would be to pay an undue proportion of revenue over for state purposes. The new system will remove certain inequalities and also tend to promote greater honesty on the part of the people in making their assessment returns.

Public service corporations and banks will have to contribute their full share of public revenues and the tendency will be to keep these concerns out of politics, as nothing will be left to the discretion of the assessors, but will work out according to a mathematical rule.

The revenue for the state government will be raised principally or altogether from a tax upon public service corporations, railroads, telephone and telegraph companies, express companies, light and power companies, banks, etc.

Look out for Senate Constitutional Amendment, No. 1.

Rev. Thomas H. Leavitt will speak on "Economics of the Bible" before the Political Economy Club at Odd Fellows' Hall this (Saturday) evening at 7:30. All should attend this meeting. Admission free.

Mrs. J. E. Flewelling, who has been spending the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McIntyre, left Saturday morning last for her home in Canterbury, N. B., stopping on her way to visit friends in Oshkosh, Wis.

Please bear in mind that the W. C. T. U. meets the first and third Fridays of each month in the M. E. church. There have been misleading dates published as to the time, but the above are the correct dates.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sherman started for a summer's visit to Iowa last Tuesday. We shall miss the guardian of the U. S. mail, as he perambulated between the postoffice and the boulevard. May his shadow grow no less "back East."

Otto Amberg, who has been in a Los Angeles hospital for the past month nursing a broken leg, caused by a runaway accident in North Glendale, was brought home this week. He is getting along well and glad to be at home again.

Mrs. John McBee and two children were week-end visitors of Miss R. M. Sherer on Fourth street. Mrs. McBee is a niece of Miss Sherer, and has lately returned from the Philippines, where she has been teaching for a number of years.

At the Baptist church, Sunday morning, the subject will be "The Importance of the Day in Which We Live." In the evening the service will be a harmony of sermon and song. In this the pastor will be assisted by the Maple quartet and the Winner's male quartet.

Mr. S. S. Strong, of Pomona, a cousin of Mr. J. L. Overton, has been looking at Glendale property the past week. He has made an offer on one of our business blocks, which may result in making him proprietor of one of our best business corners.

The Wednesday Afternoon Club met this week with Mrs. C. H. Newton of "Casa Ramona," North Glendale. The first hour was taken up with sewing, and a musicale followed, when the regular program was given. Refreshments daintily served closed the pleasant afternoon.

Invitations to the crystal wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pitcher, Second street, for Friday May 29th, were on Wednesday recalled owing to the indisposition of Mr. Pitcher, who on Friday morning left for a stay in Banning, where he went for a change and recuperation.

The Glendale delegates to the W. C. T. U. state convention at Santa Ana returned home after we went to press last week. They report very interesting proceedings, and a large attendance. Mrs. Griffith was elected state president after a somewhat exciting contest. Mrs. Lucy S. Blanchard, vice president.

The P. E. O.'s met on Monday with Mrs. H. P. Smith, Everett street. After a business session a number of B. I. L.'s were admitted in time to help dispose of the good supper provided. The next regular meeting will occur at the home of Mrs. Josephine Farrant, corner Third and Belmont streets.

Mr. McMillis, who was called to his old home in Georgia about two months ago, on account of the serious illness of his mother, returned to Glendale Tuesday. He reached his home too late for the funeral, and did not even know his mother was dead. Telegrams which the family had sent him had been returned to them.

Mr. George Mitchell and family left Tuesday over the Salt Lake road for their extensive ranch and pleasant home in Uva, Wyoming, about one hundred miles from Cheyenne. They have been delighted with Glendale, and expect to return in September of October for "Glen Cairn," their beautiful foothill home above Kenner's road where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. Mattie Sherman, accompanied by her husband, left on Tuesday last for Rippey, Iowa, where she has an aged mother. Her many friends hope the change and rest will benefit her health. She will be greatly missed in church circles and the W. C. T. U., as she was a great worker as far as her health would permit. She did what she could for the uplifting of humanity.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Church met with Mrs. J. L. Overton Wednesday afternoon last. The meeting was from every standpoint one of the most successful ever held by the society. The decorations, in blue and white, were unusually attractive. Miss Stone having attended to this feature with her usual skill. Refreshments consisted of strawberries and cake.

A recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McIntyre was Mr. S. W. Bird of Denver, Colo., an old-time friend and neighbor, who had lived near them in their former home in Wisconsin, and is now a well-known railroad man. Shortly after Mr. Bird's arrival, Dr. Hunt made a professional call at the McIntyre home. They gazed at each other in the utmost astonishment, for in the grizzled doctor and the white-haired guest were instantly recognized "Sam Bird" and "Win Hunt" of the "dear old grammar school days" of fifty years ago, away back in old Illinois. Needless to say, the meeting was a most happy one.

Little Royal Jumper, aged five years, who was greatly injured about ten days ago, was on Thursday brought to his home on Columbus avenue from a Los Angeles hospital. The little fellow, while playing on the road beyond Lomita Park, with a number of boys, tried to follow their example by running before a team drawing a two-ton load of hay. He fell, and the wheels passed over him, crushing his legs, which it has been possible to save. A large gash in his stomach was not the least of the little fellow's troubles, but he is brave, and recovering as rapidly as could be expected.

The program of the Economic Debating Club at I. O. F. hall, last Saturday evening was a very interesting one. The instrumental selection by Arthur and Eugene Miller was greatly enjoyed. The youthful musicians showed superior talent and were heartily applauded.

The address of welcome by Rev. Mr. Henry of Tropico was a beautiful blending of humor, eloquence and logic. He spoke touchingly of his boyish efforts at a debate and urged the young men of this community to join the club and made use of the opportunity to train their minds in that most useful art of expressing their thoughts in public.

Mr. Marshall Stimson of Los Angeles spoke at length on the aims and objects of the Lincoln-Roosevelt Club and in a clear and logical way made his hearers quite familiar with the hopes and purposes of that organization. He gave a most interesting narrative of the corrupt methods of the "machine, or Southern Pacific Republicans at their State convention at Sacramento. Mr. Stimson impressed his hearers as being able, fearless and honest and those who did not hear him have just cause for regret.

The Y. P. C. A.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Young People's Christian Association held last Monday evening, it was decided to thoroughly canvass the city and see what support financially and otherwise can be obtained for the institution.

This association is non-sectarian, its officers consisting of prominent men from our various churches. Its object is similar to that of the Y. M. C. A., that is, to provide entertainment of the best kind for our young people.

The papers that will be circulated by the canvassers will fully explain the objects for which contributions are asked. The object is such a worthy one that all good citizens must join in the hope that it may be successfully accomplished.

DEATH BY PTOMAIN POISON.

Mrs. Young, who with her husband and child came to Glendale about two months ago for her health, died Saturday last at their home on Valley View road, North Glendale. The lady had purchased in Los Angeles some Hamburg steak, which, owing to the fact of her husband also having purchased some meat, was not used for something like forty-eight hours after purchase. Upon partaking of it the whole family became seriously ill, Mrs. Young soon becoming unconscious and dying shortly afterwards. The other members of the family are recovering. The body was shipped back to their home in Canada.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Mr. Burton read an interesting report before the Senior History class, Wednesday, on "Submarines and Torpedos."

Practice for graduating exercises in connection with school work is making the school house a very busy place these days while the Seniors are wearing a troubled expression.

In the tennis tournament held at Hollywood last Saturday, Glendale did not take first place.

Mrs. McNutt was a visitor at the High School Wednesday.

The competitive drawings for the new building are to be delivered to Mr. Goode, secretary of the High School board of trustees, by 5 p. m., Monday, June 1. The trustees will meet the architects submitting the plans on the following evening at the High School building to allow them to explain the merits of their plans.

The annual sermon to the graduating class will be delivered by Rev. J. S. Loba, D. D. of Pasadena in the Methodist church, Sunday evening, June 14.

The Class Day exercises come on Tuesday evening, June 16, on the High School campus. Admission only by ticket.

The graduation exercises will be held in the High School auditorium, Thursday evening, June 18. The address will be given by Rev. Hugh K. Walker, D. D. of Los Angeles.

A MODEL BUNGALOW.

Mr. C. O. Rich, of whose fine work as a carpenter we have known for many years, is building a bungalow on Jackson street south of Fifth, which has some unusual features worth notice. Mr. Rich takes pride in his work and the building when completed will be almost entirely the work of his own hands. It is forty by thirty-two feet on the ground plan, will have five rooms in addition to bath. The sides are of selected matched lumber, tongue and groove, which will give them rigidity and evenness, and in addition to this, two-inch battling will be used. Three of the rooms will have hardwood floors. The living room, 24 by 14, will have a hardwood floor laid herring-bone fashion, except in the center where there will be a mat, or imitation rug of Oregon pine. Beam ceilings will be a feature of all the rooms. On the west side will be a large bay window, boxed out instead of in, as is customary. On the street side will be a cobble stone porch with cement floor, the whole 8 by 14 feet. There will be many other touches of originality in the structure and the plumbing will be in keeping with the rest of the work.

Having rented my place and about to start for Europe, I offer the following described property for sale:

CLUB ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

At the regular meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club occurred the annual election of officers, with the following result: President, Mrs. Edgar N. Pack; vice president, Mrs. Alexander Mitchell; secretary, Mrs. John Parker; treasurer, Mrs. Clarence J. Newcomb.

The election of Mrs. Pack, who has once before held the presidency for a year, and of Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, was made unanimous.

The chairman of the program committee submitted the program for the coming year, which was accepted, and many of the topics were assigned. Active members will find plenty to do. Aside from the regular program work, which takes up literature, music, art, improvements and reformation, there will be classes in parliamentary drill, conducted by a quick, sharp, up-to-the-minute parliamentarian.

The forestry and park committee, in charge of an energetic chairman, will have in view "Glendale the Beautiful," and an extensive planting of trees, the improvement of parkways, and first and last and all the time—a public park, or parks.

The civic committee will keep close watch on affairs municipal. Such little things as clean streets, fire escapes for schoolhouses and other buildings, sanitary drinking cups, suitable amusement for uncared-for children, etc., will be given careful attention. The membership of the club is rapidly increasing, and many new names are ready to be handed in at once. Interest in library matters has not been dropped, but the largest energies, perhaps, of the club, this year, will be toward obtaining a site, and building thereon a suitable woman's clubhouse. For this reason, at the last meeting the club voted to incorporate, members volunteering to look after the necessary expense. The slogan adopted is "Glendale."

N. P. BANKS CORPS' HAPPY SURPRISE.

Wednesday afternoon, twenty-five officers and members of the Woman's Relief Corps, with the president, Mrs. B. F. Burlingham, called upon Mrs. Martha Meyers and her sister, Mrs. Hattie Crozier, and spent the afternoon. Age and infirmities prevent these two ladies attending corps meetings, and the members, realizing this called upon them.

The ladies went with arms well laden with supplies for house, kitchen and pantry. Material was also taken from which aprons, handkerchiefs, dresses, kimonos and waists were made. Fraternity, charity and loyalty were manifest on all sides.

Then, as the evening shadows fell, and the pretty, new garments were laid aside, one of the members announced that a cup of tea awaited each of the willing workers. Then, as the tea was slipped, Mrs. Meyers, whose patriotism and loyalty are proverbial in the corps, told of the many happy days that have been hers since the organization of N. P. Banks Corps.

Several patriotic hymns were sung, and the afternoon that gave so much happiness to these dear old ladies was closed with prayer offered by Mrs. J. H. Henry.

The corps ladies who thus contributed were Mrs. B. F. Burlingham, Mrs. Charles Peckham, Mrs. Jesse Stine, Mrs. Alfred Engelhardt, Mrs. W. B. Pratt, Mrs. W. H. Halleck, Mrs. Georgia Francis, Mrs. Della Hapgood, Miss Flora Chandler, Mrs. Charles Rijenberck, Mrs. W. R. Light, Mrs. Ellen Early, Mrs. Clara Inman, Mrs. Ira Tucker, Mrs. E. B. Elliot, Mrs. E. J. Snow, Mrs. Will Dutton, Mrs. Susie Miller, Mrs. A. W. Collins, Mrs. J. O. Garmon, Mrs. J. H. Henry, Mrs. Nathan Burlingham and Mrs. E. J. Neal.

DANCE FOR CHARITY.

MEMORIAL SUNDAY.

Beautiful and impressive were the memorial exercises held at G. A. R. hall Sunday afternoon. On the platform, profusely decorated in palms, roses and ferns, under the folds of the starry banner, sat two score gray-haired veterans. These veterans were escorted to the platform by the ladies of N. P. Banks Corps. Mrs. Della Hapgood, Mrs. C. C. Chandler, Mrs. W. A. Hough and Mrs. W. R. Light, color-bearers of the corps, stood with crossed flags as the post, with Comrade J. Bailey bearing the colors, marched under the silken banners to martial music rendered by Mrs. J. H. Henry, corps musician. The audience joined in singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee." Rev. A. W. McConnell, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Tropico, led in prayer. Mrs. Charles Peckham led in the singing of the Battle Hymn of the Republic. Rev. Stone of the Baptist Church of Glendale gave the Scriptural reading. "The Star Spangled Banner" was sung by Mrs. Charles Peckham, the audience joined in the singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner." Mrs. E. J. Snow, pastor of the Methodist Church, delivered the memorial address, which treated not so much of the valor and bravery of the days of '61 to '65 as of the duty of one man to another, of charity, fraternity and loyalty to each other, to our God, our country, our flag. The conflict is over, those troublesome days of the early sixties, the battle-stained banners are laid away, the cannon stilled; over all floats the banner of peace and love.

Members of N. P. Banks post arose

While Mrs. Kennedy, wife of the private secretary of Mayor Harper, residing on Central avenue, and a lady friend from Los Angeles, were driving on Brand Boulevard, last Sunday afternoon, the horse became frightened at a car and ran away, overturning the buggy and throwing both ladies out. Mrs. Kennedy was taken to a hospital in Los Angeles for examination. It was found that while very badly bruised, no bones were broken. She was brought home again and is yet in bed recovering from her injuries. Her companion while painfully bruised was not seriously hurt. The runaway was captured by Mr. Alexander Mitchell.

ALASKA-YUKON-PACIFIC EXPOSITION.

This exposition, which will be held in 1909, is making excellent progress in the erection of buildings, etc.

A salmon cannery in operation will be one of the many interesting moving exhibits at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition.

Another large permanent building, the Fine Arts Palace, has been started. It will be of buff brick.

An electric tower similar to the famous one at the Buffalo exposition, but with many new effects, will be one of the decorative features of the exposition.

California's building will be a handsome structure. It will be one of the largest State buildings on the grounds, and will be old mission in design.

The largest scenic railway ever erected will be an attraction on the Pay streak, the amusement boulevard of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. It will depict scenes in Alaska, Yukon and in the countries bordering upon the Pacific ocean.

More than 7500 persons visit the grounds of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition every fine Sunday to witness the progress made in building. The management takes this as a good sign that the attendance during the exposition will be large.

A medical and surgical building costing $20,000, will be one of the structures of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. It will contain exhibits of the progress, standing and advancement of the medical and surgical science in America and the rest of the world.

A large motor boat exhibit will have a place on the shore of Lake Washington at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition. Lake Washington borders the exposition grounds for more than a mile and is the largest fresh water body in the Pacific Northwest. Demonstrations of the different makes of motor boats will be made, starting from an ornate boat house.

The exposition will have immense decorative features.

Plans are now being drawn for an immense costly electric tower. E. F. Champney, chief designer, of Howard and Calloway, supervising architects, is making the design, under the direction of John Galen Howard, who designed the electric tower at the Pan-American exposition. There will be many new effects produced in the tower at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition and it is expected to be one of the best decorative features of the grounds.

The State of New York will participate in the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition by erecting a building and installing therein an exhibit. The legislature of the Empire State recently appropriated $75,000 for this purpose. A commission composed of two State senators and three assemblymen will have charge of the work. It is expected that an additional appropriation for entertainment will be made at the next meeting of the legislature.

MAKE PRIMARY LAW MANDATORY.

Petitions are in circulation and will be presented to the board of supervisors today, asking that body, as empowered by law, to make mandatory in all the precincts of the county, the State law governing primary elections, which now is only made applicable to Los Angeles and Pasadena. As conditions are at present it remains for the county committees of the respective political parties to call a primary election in country precincts or not, as suits their pleasure. In a great many precincts of the State no primary elections were held to select delegates to the recent State conventions, the places being filled by appointment by the county committees. Owing to this most rank and unrepresentative method the Republican machine at its late convention was enabled to control that body, although the majority of elected delegates had been elected by the Lincoln-Roosevelt Republican League.

STREET NUMBERS.

Our people are slow to avail themselves of the privilege of having an official number for their houses. Probably not many of them have given the matter any thought, and the basis of the system, which should be known to everybody, may help them to solve the problem. Numbers start from First and Adams street. One hundred numbers are allotted to a block, beginning with the number one hundred. One set of numbers are allowed to each twenty-five feet, so that the house on a fifty-foot lot has the choice of two sets of numbers, as for example, 101 or 102, 104 or 106, etc. Even numbers on the East and South sides of streets. At the office of the City Clerk a map book may be found showing all numbers as allotted, and that official will at any time give an inquiring property owner information as to his number. Numbers cost five cents apiece at the hardware store. The numbering is so great a convenience to property owners that it should not be neglected.

HOUSE ROBBED.

What the Los Angeles Times would call "A Daylight Burglary," was perpetrated at the home of Mr. W. S. Traphagen, on Louise street, Wednesday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 5 p. m. during the absence of the family. The thief gained entrance by cutting the screen on the rear door breaking the inside door open with a hatchet. The house was thoroughly ransacked, but little booty was obtained, that consisting of a small sum of money and some jewelry. An officer being telegraphed for investigation and expressed the opinion that the job had been done by an expert.

THE SCHOOL BOND ELECTION.

The election on the school bond and tax propositions last Saturday may be said to have carried by default. The vote on the bond issue was twenty-five for and two against. In other words, about one voter out of every fifteen voted. We have no fault to find with the result of the election, but the light vote cast will serve to point a moral. However, we give this as a news item and resist the temptation to moralize. The thousand dollar tax was voted unanimously.

LAYS OF A QUIET TOWN.

LAY VI.

The New Trustee.

It was a newly elected trustee
With a smile that was fearfully bland
Who expression gave to his sentiments free
And the program he had planned.

"Oh, I'm going to turn 'em upside down;
Why else am I it?" said he,
I'll show 'em things in this small town
That are quite worth while to see."

"Now the City Hall is a frightful place,
Tho I thought not so before,
But the sight of it now makes the shivers chase
Down my spinal column's core."

"What they mostly need in this town
Is style,
We want things airy and free,
I'll show 'em now 'twas worth their while
To fasten their faith to me."

"I'll buy a mat for the office door,
And a gilded brass spittoon,
A velvet carpet to cover the floor,
As gay as red roses in June."

"There's the engine house that stands outside
Exposed to the wind and weather,
That passers by may its fate deride
And scoff at its altogether."

"I'll pack it away in the vaulted room,
Where the musty archives are,
I'll scatter the atmosphere of gloom
That my sensitive spirits jar."

"And then one can see with half an eye
That the city officials are slack,
I guess I'll get them jumping spry
When I whistle up the track."

"The Mayor smiles and then looks wise,
And it's easy enough to see
That it's all a part of a shrewd disguise
To conceal some trick from me."

"The City Clerk is waxing fat
As he rides in his chug chug car,
Egad, I've an idea under my hat
That his Royal Sereneness will jar."

"And there's the Marshal ought to work
Day and night on the hopdiums trail,
If he didn't the duties of office shirk
He'd pack the old Burbank jail."

He'd pack it full from pit to dome
Till from guile our town was free,
There wouldn't be many left at home,
Not many but him and me!"

"It takes a new broom to sweep things clean
And I think I am rather fit,
Let me get the hang of this old machine
And perhaps you'll think I'm fit!"

And such was the lay of the new trustee
In the nest that was yet to be feathered;
It's the tall, tall timber for you and me
Where the innocent ones are foregathered!

The Burbank Dancing club gave a dancing party in the I. O. F. hall, Saturday evening. Excellent music was furnished and the crowd was just large enough to allow those who were fortunate enough to attend to have a real good time.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church, held their regular monthly meeting in the church Thursday afternoon. A goodly number of members were present. Plans are being made for a social to be given in the near future.

Mrs. Ed. A. Fischer entertained with a luncheon at her home Sunday. Pink roses in profusion graced the luncheon table. Covers were laid for Misses Susan Everander, Marie Lemar, Susie Donahue, May Rorgan, Susie McGrath, Nellie Dee, Mesdames Gibson, Curr, Messrs. Doyle, Dunn and Lyod.

We greatly regret having made an error in printing the sites mentioned for the locating of the Burbank Union High school and we here desire to correct the statement made last week in regard to the "Stough Site," as it is a full five-acres instead of three, as printed, and the price is $3000 and no restriction or provisions.

A social event of the week was the dinner given by Mrs. Mary Spencer at her home on Orange Grove avenue, Monday evening, complimentary to Misses Emma Perry and Nellie Cartwright. White roses ornamented the living room, and in the dining room red carnations were used with asparagus plumosus. Places were marked with leap year pen and ink sketches in red and black. In the evening the four seniors entertained the three Juniors. The evening was spent in playing games. In the Gibsonian contest Miss Emma Riddell won first ladies' prize and Earl Robinson first gentleman's, while the consolation prize was won by Miss Mattie Mortenson. Those present were Misses Emma Riddell, June Lutge, Mattie Mortenson, Nona Denham, Messrs. Fletcher, Pomeroy, Earl Robinson, Will Holist and Walter Smith.

Burbank High School Site

DEFENSE AGAINST UNFOUNDED ACCUSATION

Some forces, working against my proposed site for the establishing of the Burbank High School, disseminated, evidently for the purpose of lessening the desirability of my place as a school site, the false news that I have promised to pay the sum of $1000 or so to a party advocating my site, if through its influence the site should be accepted.

I consider it my duty to defend myself and my friends against this false accusation. Nobody in the world can truthfully say that I used a dishonest influence or offered any undue money for carrying the sale of my land through the school site election, to be held next Tuesday, June 2d.

The truth is, that more than two months ago I listed my property for sale with a real estate agent, and this agent offered it afterwards for a High School site to the representatives of the Burbank Union High School; consequently I shall have to pay to the said agent the regular commission if he completes the sale of the land in due time without any difference to whomever he sells the property.

This is the full truth. And now allow me to ask the question: Will the desirability of my land as a school site be in any way affected by offering the same to the public through an agent? I think the honest voter will answer this question in the negative.

My site is, without any doubt, the most desirable of the three proposed school sites, because it is almost centrally located, on the main valley road, in a healthy location and commanding as good a view as either of the other two sites. The Lutge site I consider less desirable, because it is too far up toward the hills and close to the dangerous electric power conduit on Sixth street. The least desirable site is undoubtedly, contrary to the opinion of our county school superintendent, the Stough site, because it is located too far out of the town toward the desert.
